

Seven Steps to Writing Success

SEMINARS – SYDNEY – TERM 1, 2012

We're delighted with the results we have seen achieved by our clients who have taken the Seven Steps to Writing Success as a whole school approach!

Have you taken the Seven Steps to Writing Success journey yet? It works!

A great school doesn't only talk about innovative ideas, they take steps to bring about change, to stand out from the crowd. Hear your students buzzing about Sizzling Starts and laughing their heads off, feel proud of the enriched quality of the written work that adorns the school halls and newsletters.....and ultimately taste success.

The skills of writing, we're continually told, are not being conveyed in teacher training at universities. In a crowded-curriculum, how can we fit everything in? The pressure is always on.
