

Step 6: Ban the Boring Two Stars and a Wish

Two Stars

Start by telling the writer two things they are doing right! For example, you might say, 'Your beginning was snappy and really grabbed my attention' and 'Using a quotation here to convey the information was a great idea'.

... and a Wish

Then suggest how the writer could make improvements. For example, you might say, 'Switching these body paragraphs around would build tension and help set up the Ending with Impact'.

Use Seven Steps terminology to provide feedback on two things the writer has done well and one thing they can improve under the relevant Steps below. You don't have to use all of the Seven Steps – stick to two stars and a wish!
