NEWS ROOM 6:00 AM
HOST AMELIA KING INTERVIEWS
MILLY JOHNSON ABOUT CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

AMELIA

Welcome to breakfast breaking news! I'm your host Amelia King, and today's top story: A spate of jewelry robberies, solved through a case of mistaken identity! 25 year old Milly Johnson catches duo of criminals planning a jewelry robbery at Sapphires Jewelry Store at 11:45 tonight. With me in the studio today is Milly Johnson. Here, to tell us her story, is Milly.

MILLY

I had no idea I had a twin sister. I was adopted and always thought I was an only child. Yesterday at 12:15 PM I was sitting outside of Starbucks, drinking a Unicorn Frappuccino, when suddenly, an old man with a big grey bushy beard came up and sat down at my table. He suddenly started talking about emergency evacuation routes all through Sapphires Jewelry Store.

AMELIA

So what made you know that this guy was up to no good?

MILLY

Well it was a challenge because I was very confused. I had no idea who this man was but I listened in closely, though I still wasn't quite catching on. I needed more information but at the same time I needed extremely careful about what I asked.

AMELIA

Alright, so how did you take the approach on finding out what was happening?

MILLY

I think the conversation went a little like this:

"So what did you say we were doing there?" I asked cautiously.

"Huh? Oh you mean what are we stealing there? I dunno yet." I remember thinking JACKPOT!! "Sorry, when was this going to happen again?" I asked, with a confused shake of my head.

"Gosh your memory's bad today. 11:45 tomorrow night.

AMELIA

Then what did you do?

MILLY

I said goodbye and went to the police station right away and reported the robbery to constable Jackson Mary.

AMELIA

Thank you Milly. To follow up on this story is constable Jackson Mary on the line.

CONSTABLE JACKSON MARY

With the information Milly gathered, it wasn't hard to track down the robbers. She did an outstanding job of acting and we are so grateful of her braveness.

AMELIA

Thank you. Now here's Milly again:

MILLY

When I saw Tilly getting arrested I was in SHOCK. It was like a mirror image of myself, except baring her teeth in rage!!

AMELIA

Thanks again Milly. Tilly and her unknown partner now face court, and are expected to be sentenced to 40 years in jail, including previous robberies.
